

Digital copier/mfp data retention notification and disclaimer

I hereby acknowledge that I have been duly informed that certain digital copier/MFP models can retain electronic copies of documents that may contain private and confidential information in internal memory systems. Retention and subsequent disclosure of this data to unauthorized parties may violate privacy laws and security policies.

Our dealership has informed you of the Data Security Options that we offer provide a method to keep your private data confidential, and at this time I choose not to accept the data security options as a compliant solution. I release Dahill from any liability concerning data security.
